Sales and Liability: The Catalina Art Association is not liable for any sales transaction and assumes no responsibility for damage or loss. Submitting an entry to this show shall imply an agreement on the part of the entrant. CAA reserves the right to reject any work that creates a liability or safety hazard to the public. The vendor is completely responsible for any sales that happen during the event. This includes taking credit cards and checks. Sales Tax: As of July, 2020, the City of Avalon Sales Tax is 9.5%. We recommend that you include it in the price of your items. It is not a well-known fact that festival and outdoors market vendors must charge sales tax and it is too difficult to explain this tax to visitors. Just include it in the price and net it out -- keep a simple journal of your sales for this reason. The CAA is not responsible for keeping any records of your sales and does not collect money or monitor sales activity of its festival vendors.

(Note: Applying for space in this show is not guaranteed. Our festival committee will review your application and contact you upon approval. Once approved, you will receive confirmation and booth assignment via email. We reserve the right to decline any applications or applicants.

NEW APPLICATIONS WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED UNLESS ACCOMPANIED BY DETAILED DESCRIPTIONS OF ARTWORK AND PHOTOS. NO EXEMPTIONS.) Returning Exhibitors are not re-juried.

If you are attending this show and are not eligible for judging, you can still participate if juried in by our Board of Directors. Indicate if you want to be judged or not in the form below.
